

GEMMA D

Personal statement

I have worked professionally for four years in promotions and various exhibition work throughout the country.

I have represented many major household brands and major corporate businesses during this time at all the major exhibition venues in the UK. I pride myself on my looks and have done many modelling assignments but essentially I am known for my hard working and committed approach to all exhibition and promotional work I undertake.

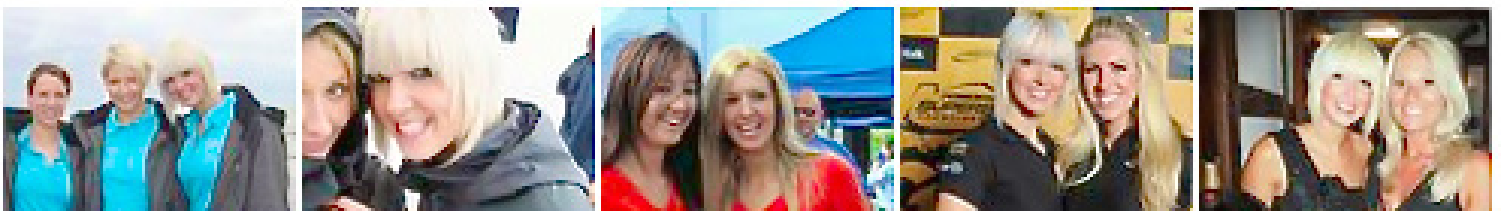

I am extremely confident, businesslike, versatile and flexible in my ability to deliver sales, promotional, product launch's, footfall capture and retain, data capture, hospitality briefs with professionalism and enthusiasm generating the results required by the clients everytime!
