

KATE H

Personal statement

I take my career very seriously within the promotional , events and modelling industry. I pride myself on fulfilling every job that I do with 100% commitment. I have worked for many high end industries and I am capable in communicating with people at all levels.

It gives me a lot of pleasure knowing I have done a great job not only for myself but for the agencies I work for. It's always a pleasure to be rebooked by a client knowing that I have reflected well with them and that they want to use me again. Whatever job it is I would like clients to know that when they book me their business will be represented in the best possible way.
